

Nov 10, 1865

Capt. Henry WIRZ was tried for war crimes after the U.S. Civil War. (The only one)

He was Commander of Andersonville
Prison, in Georgia, from Mar 1864
to Apr 1865. During this yr, more than 13,700 men died in Andersonville.
At one time, as many as 33,000 Union men were packed into Prison.

Capt. Wierz was found guilty and hanged Nov 10, 1865